Open Cup Triumph: Ten Years Later

By Eric Trendel

One of the greatest stories in Rochester sports history occurred a decade ago as the City of Rochester embraced a championship soccer team. Not since the Rochester Royals NBA Championship over 50 years ago had the Flower City welcomed a national team sports champion. The Raging Rhinos professional soccer team had shocked the soccer world and added to the city's sports lore.

The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup tournament is one of the oldest playdown competitions in the United States, having begun in 1914, and is recognized as the United States Soccer Federation's national soccer championship. The tournament is open to all teams, both professional and amateur. The grand prize, the Dewey Cup, now known as the Lamar Hunt Trophy, is considered the oldest trophy in team sports and currently resides in the Soccer Hall of Fame.

Since the inception of Major League Soccer in 1996, an MLS team has captured the championship every year, except one. For the Rochester Raging Rhinos, the road to the 1999 U.S. Open Cup championship was one filled with excitement, passion and emotion. Defeating four of the MLS' elite teams was a feat that captured the hearts of fans nationwide.

The drive to the title began on June 30th at Frontier Field against an amateur club from New York City, the Freedom. Unexpectedly, New York proved to be a handful for Rochester despite playing a man down for most of the match. After a hard fought first half, in which the teams battled to a scoreless tie, the Freedom silenced the Frontier Field crowd by taking a 1-0 lead in the 57th minute when Rodney Rambo stole the ball and chipped a shot over goalkeeper Billy Andracki.

Rochester scored the equalizer just five minutes later when Mauro Biello scored off a one-touch pass from Doug Miller. Neither team was able to end the game in regulation of the first overtime. However in the 109th minute of the match, Darren Tilley's header off a corner kick taken by Biello found the back of the net and the Rhinos escaped Round Two of the tournament with a 2-1 overtime win.

Rochester advanced to the third round of the tournament, and on July 14th hosted the defending U.S. Open Cup and MLS champion Chicago Fire in front of 10,107 at Frontier Field. In a highly anticipated match between the defending league champions, Rochester outplayed Chicago for most of the first half, just missing on several scoring opportunities, but the two powerhouses played to a scoreless tie after 45 minutes.

In the second stanza, Rhino midfielder Yari Allnutt slipped between two Fire defenders and headed a ball past All-League goalkeeper Zach Thornton in the 51st minute to

Rhinos Offer Unprecedented Naming Rights Promotion

On April 16, 2009, the Rochester Rhinos professional soccer club announced an unprecedented stadium naming rights plan designed to give their loyal fans an opportunity to place their name on Rhinos Stadium during the 2009 season.

The plan unveiled by Rhinos owner and CEO Rob Clark allowed both individual season ticket holders and corporate sponsors an opportunity to name the Rhinos stadium for 2009. By participating, fans received one opportunity to be chosen for every $1000 spent in the form of season tickets or corporate sponsorship. The stadium name was unveiled at a random drawing at halftime of the Rhinos home opener on Saturday, May 30th against the Montreal Impact.

“We were truly excited to present this opportunity to not only large companies but to our loyal fans as well” said Clark. “The plan was a chance to put Rochester on the map while doing something that really makes sense in the current economic climate. Looking at the realm of the sports industry, sponsorship sales are declining. We decided to do something where everyone wins and one lucky fan or company gets to put his name on the stadium for 2009.”

The reaction the historic promotion brought the Rhinos was one of excitement.

Rhinos account executive Rich Randall was the one who came up with the innovated new idea. “The buzz circulating this promotion has been incredible” said Randall “Not only did we make a splash locally, but nationally as well. It was a first in American sports history and our sales numbers increased immediately after the announcement. It’s a unique way to give one lucky fan a once in a lifetime opportunity.”

To ensure fairness the Rhinos hired Stokes and Visca, the official accounting firm of the Rhinos will help with the promotion.

The naming rights promotion is one the President of Business Operations Salvatore Fantauzzo believes is a great way to honor the Rhinos loyal fans “The new naming rights participant is going to forever be enshrined in the Rhinos history books and at the stadium” said Fantauzzo. “This is a way for us to honor those who have been loyal to the team. The stadium could be named after a business, individual, school, non-profit or youth team” give Rochester a 1-0 lead. "Kirmse pulls up with the ball and looks to see whose eyes are wide open, and I had my teeth and my eyes smiling" said Allnutt. "I was hoping the ball would get there and it did." For goalkeeper Pat Onstad the energy felt from the fans was unique. "When we got that goal you could just feel the electricity in the stadium" said Onstad. "We've had bigger crowds here and have scored goals that maybe were more clutch with less time but this crowd just erupted. At that stage, I realized something special was going to happen. Although the Rhinos lost defender Scott Schweitzer in the 76th minutes for getting in an altercation with Lubos Kubik, Rochester's stifling defense would hold off Chicago for the remaining 14 minutes as the Rhinos faithful witnessed yet another milestone in Rochester soccer history.

Like a box getting stronger with every round, the Rhinos welcomed the Dallas Burn to Frontier Field on August 11th for the cup quarterfinals. It was the second time the Rhinos faced a former Open Cup champ as the Burn captured the title in 1997.

This match began with a different intensity as the Rhinos playing style was described by Dallas Head Coach Dave Dir like "11 Dennis Rodman's" earlier in the week. Rochester refused to back down, even after Burn forward Todd Eck charged into Onstad, knocking him out at halftime with a concussion and thigh bruise. An injury to their All-Star 'keeper only galvanized the Rhinos resolve. "It was a blatant charge on our goalkeeper" said defender Tim Hardy. "We respect Dallas but we're not going to back down from something like that."

But the "Miracle on Plymouth Avenue" continued when Mike Kirmse notched the game winner, off the bench in overtime on a rebound off the crossbar in a scramble in front of the Burn goal. The Burn crashed, and the Rhinos marched into the U.S. Open Cup semi-finals for the second time in four seasons and were showing American soccer fans Rochester wasn't afraid of the MLS. "People talk about MLS being a bit quicker and maybe a little fitter" said Tilley. "But when it comes to Cup competitions and you go to overtime, it's all about heart and we've certainly got bucket loads of that on this club."

The Rhinos traveled to the Virginia Beach SportsPlex in Hampton Roads, Virginia to face the Columbus Crew in a Cup doubleheader. The real opponent was Hurricane Dennis, whose 60 mpg wind gusts during the match forced Coach Ercoli into a strategy session – go against the wind in the first half, then let the hurricane push the Rhinos to victory in the second half. Rochester shocked the soccer world again, rallying from a one goal deficit to score two goals in the final four minutes of the match to advance to the U.S. Open Cup Finals for the second time on the club's four-year history.

Tilley scored the first Rhino goal, and Scott Schweitzer knotted the match at 2-2 with a 25-yard free kick in the 86th minute. With the game in stoppage time, defender Tim Hardy took a right-footed shot from the top of the box to beat Columbus goalkeeper Mark Dougherty and the Rhinos once again stunned an MLS opponent with a 3-2 win over the Crew. After the match Hardy reflected on the biggest goal of his career. "I wanted to go left, but I couldn't because it would have taken me on a bad angle. So I faked outside and cut inside. I was looking to use the wind and bend it far bar." Rochester was on its way to the final match for America's soccer championship.

In the Rhinos history book, September 14, 1999 is circled with an exclamation point. Over 2,000 rhinos fans made the trip to Crew Stadium in Columbus, Ohio to witness Rochester sports history. In front of a national television audience on ESPN, the Rhinos met the Colorado Rapids for the U.S. Open Cup championship.

Colorado took the play to Rochester for the better part of the first half, just missing on several good scoring chances, outshooting the Rhinos, 10-3. But the Rhinos began to take charge in the second half. With the two teams locked in a scoreless tie, Bill Sedgewick chased down a loose ball in the corner and fed a pass to Doug Miller. Miller controlled the ball and snuck a left-footed shot through the legs of 'keeper Ian Feuer for a 1-0 lead. Rhinos goalkeeper Pat Onstad made the goal stand up as he robbed Rapids high scoring forward Jorge Dely Valdes with two minutes remaining in regulation.

In the 90th minute, the Rhinos would add an insurance goal, as Carlos Zavala sent a cross to Mike Kirmse, who flicked it on to Yari Allnutt. Allnutt snapped a shot past Feuer, and the celebration began, in crew Stadium, at home in Rochester and across the United States. David had beat Goliath. The little guy beat up the Bully. The Rhinos were national champions.

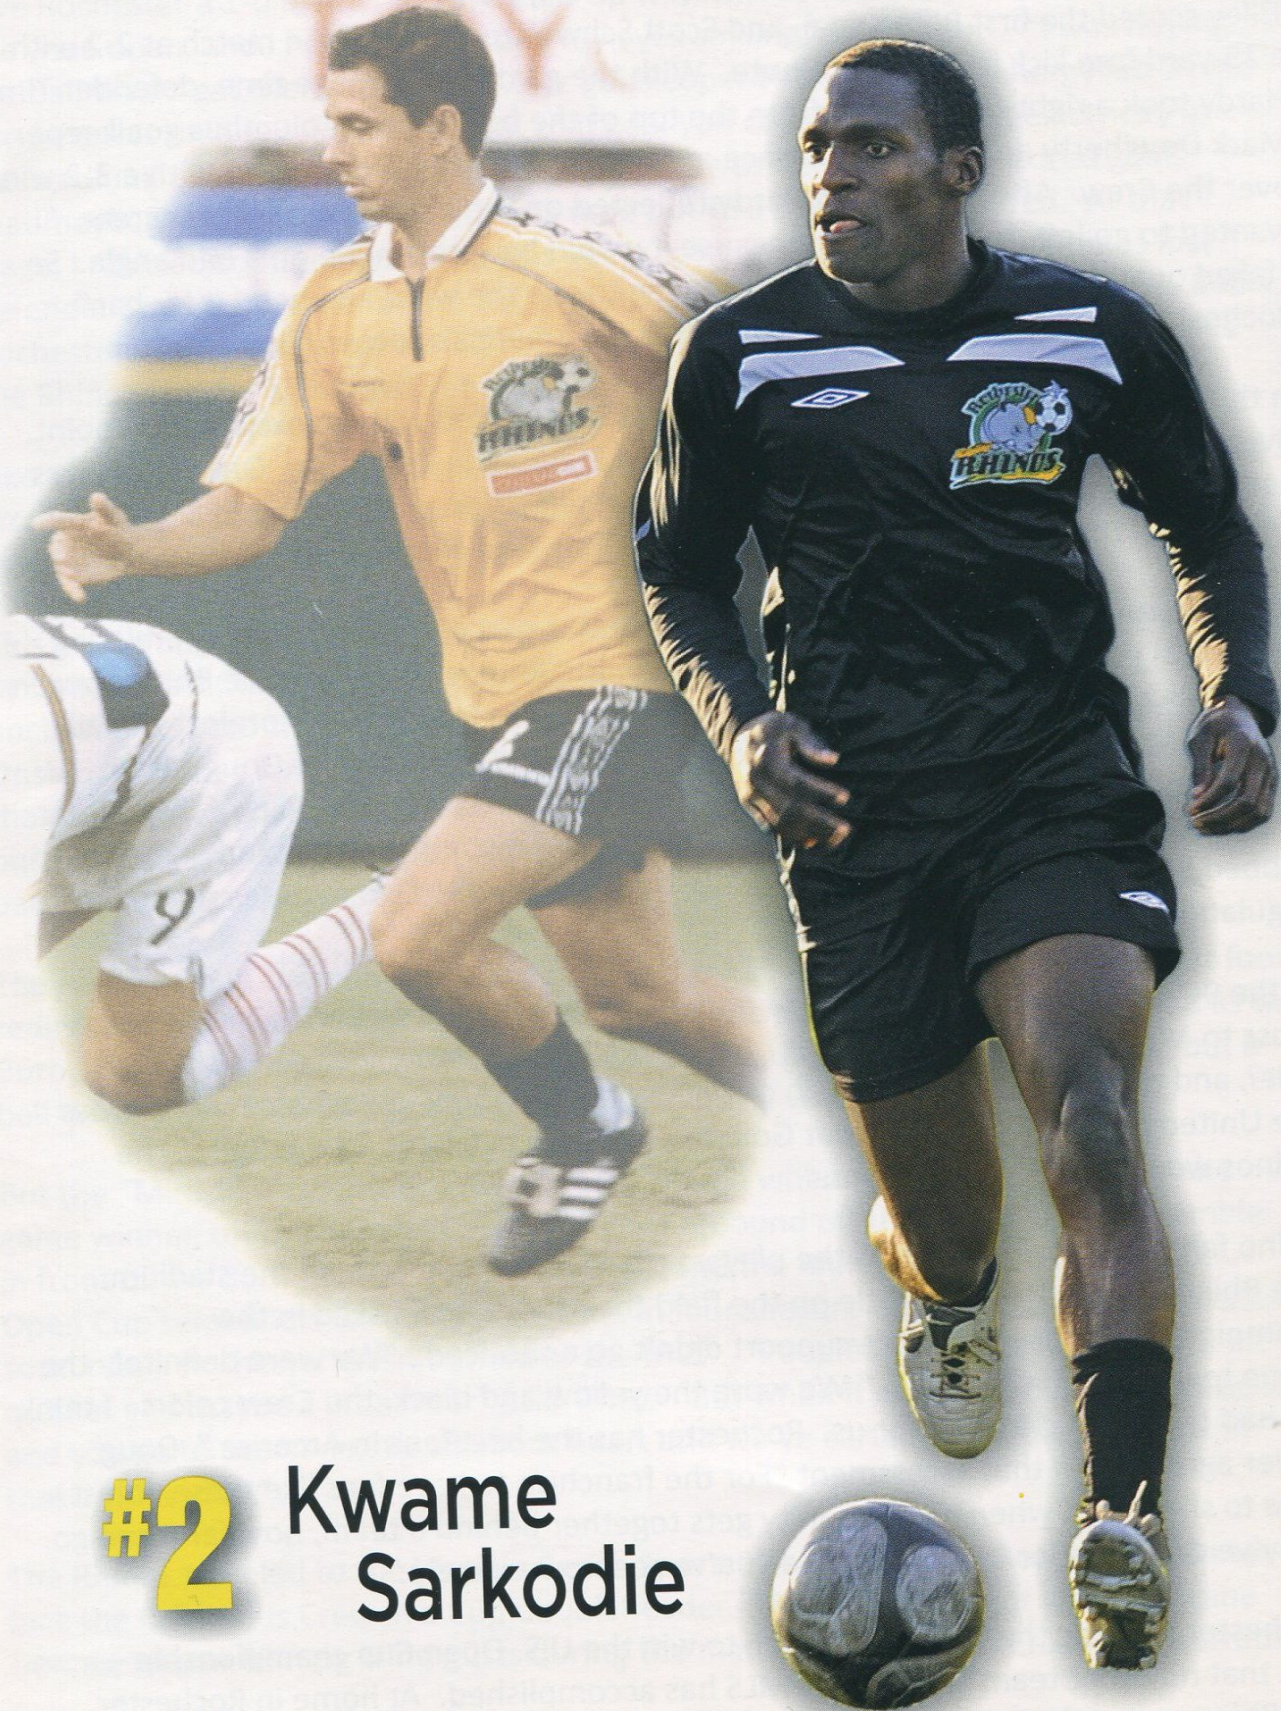

Rhino fans stormed the field as the players paraded the Cup around the stadium. The Rhinos celebrated their title on the field their fans who basked in the championship glow and whose support didn't go unnoticed. "We were definitely the home team" said Schweitzer. "We wore the yellow and black, the Crew colors. I think we had their fans cheering for us. Rochester has the best fans in America." Doug Miller agreed with that assessment "For the franchise to have fans like these, it just goes to show that when a community gets together behind a team, how far it can go. They've driven us for four years, and you've seen our success."

Rochester became the first USL-1 team to win the U.S. Open Cup championship – a feat that no other team outside the MLS has accomplished. At home in Rochester, the Rhinos were the talk of the town – SoccerTown, U.S.A.

Economic Turmoil Brings Some Of The Best Car Bargains Ever.

Consumers Who Can Buy Now, Can Reap The Biggest Savings.

At least one business has turned the current economic turmoil into a positive thing. Marina Dodge-Mitsubishi, a Rochester, NY-based auto dealership has secured an extensive inventory of new and used cars, trucks, vans and SUVs, from bank repossessions, dealer wholesale auctions, factory distressed inventories; and private parties. The two Marina stores will be unloading this inventory at some of the lowest prices ever offered in Monroe County.

"They say one man's burden can be another's bargain..." says Marina president John Gabriele. "These vehicles are available at some of the lowest pricing we have been able to offer in years.

Those individuals that can purchase a new or used vehicle now can really benefit from what is going on now with our economy. I have never seen values like these, and I have been in the car business for 25 years."

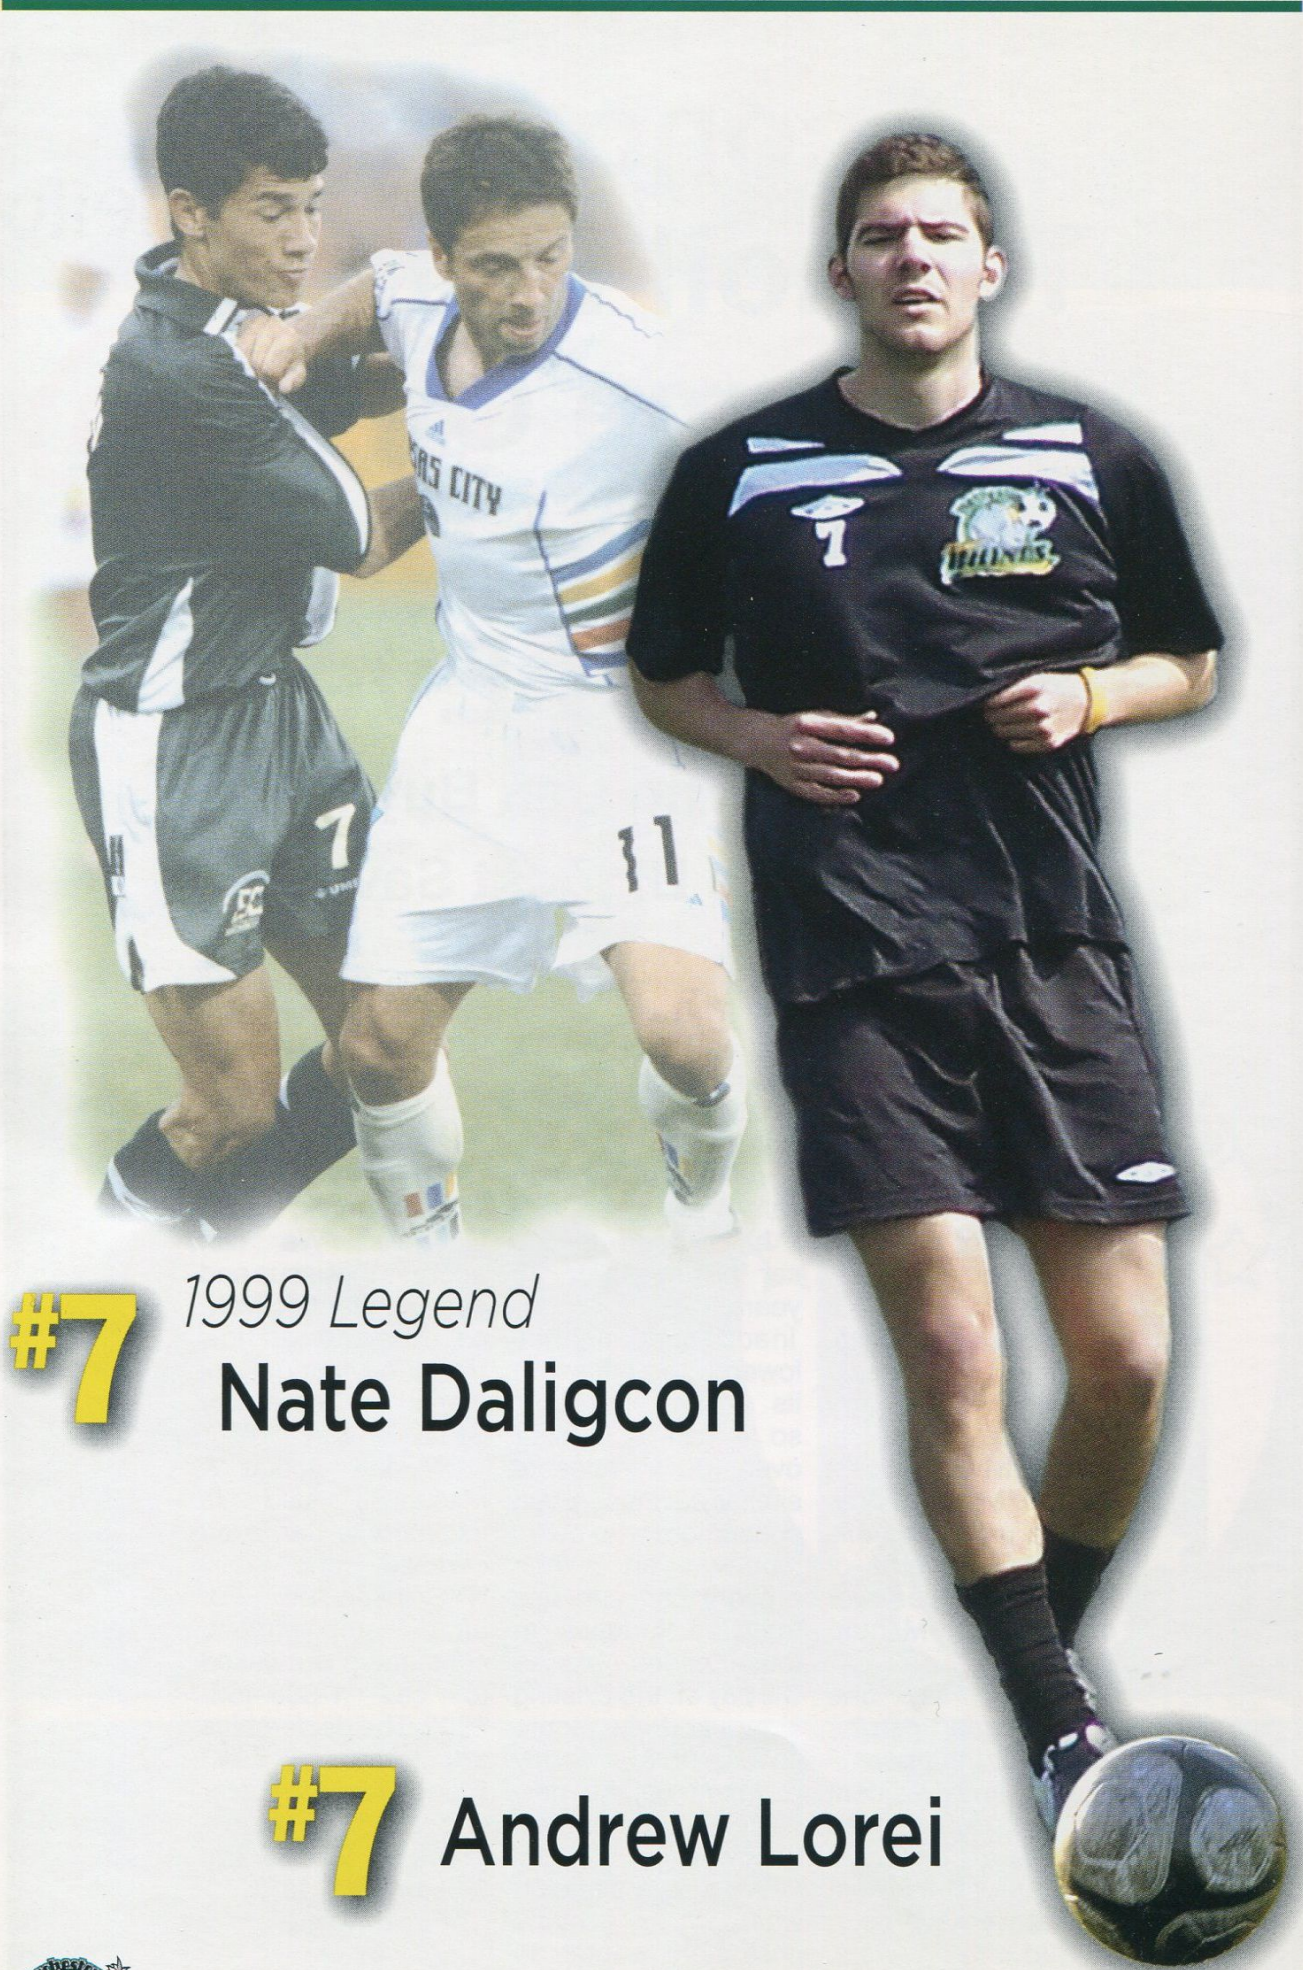

In addition, Marina has lowered the prices on its existing inventory, so it can now offer over 400 vehicles at similar savings. Even consumers who owe money on their present car, can use them as trade-ins. In those cases, Marina will pay off the existing loan, and in some cases, the monthly payment on the new vehicle purchase will be lower.

"We saw a situation where many customers wanted to trade-in their existing vehicles and upgrade to one of the ones on our lot. They felt it was impossible because they still owed so much on their current car or truck," says Gabriele. "We can address that issue and deal with it effectively, so everyone can now take advantage of these extraordinary deals."

Marina Dodge & Mitsubishi said its inventory is CarFaxed certified and fully NYS inspected. For an appointment, consumers are asked to call 1-888-462-2902. The dealerships are located at 943 Ridge Rd, in Webster and are open Mon - Thurs 9 - 9; Fri & Sat 9-6; and Sun 11-3.

THE NEW LOOK OF DRINKABILITY

Bud Light is now dressed to refresh with a bold new look for the just-right taste you've always loved. Easy to drink, never too heavy and never too light- that's Drinkability. It won't fill you up and never lets you down. So, when you're looking to keep the good times going, look for the fresh new label on a cold Bud Light. THE DIFFERENCE IS DRINKABILITY.

You Can "Order" a Used Vehicle Just Like A New Car?

At Auction Direct USA, we can find any car or truck, with no risk to you!

How It Works

STEP #1

Let Us Know!

You visit the store or visit us online.

STEP #2

Tell Us What You Want!

You complete a Vehicle Request Form with your sales associate, after which you will be given a firm price.

STEP #3

Buy It!

We complete the purchase paperwork together and you leave a refundable deposit subject to approval of the vehicle when it arrives. It's that easy!

STEP #4

We Find It!

We locate your vehicle by searching from hundreds of weekly dealer-only auctions. Your sales associate will keep you informed during the search process. Within 7 to 10 days we should have your vehicle ready for pick-up.

STEP #5

You Drive Away!

You come to Auction Direct USA, receive all the benefits like financing, warranties and a money-back guarantee, inspect the vehicle and drive it away!
